GUSTAFSON GLUEK PLLC

Firm Résumé

May 2012

Gustafson Gluek PLLC is a Minneapolis law firm with a national practice, with emphasis in antitrust, consumer protection and class action litigation. The four members of the firm have over seventy years of experience in these areas, as well as in the areas of intellectual property litigation involving patents, trademarks and trade dress, complex business litigation, and securities fraud litigation.

Gustafson Gluek PLLC practices before state and federal courts throughout the country and works with and opposes some of the nation's largest companies and law firms. The firm was formed in May 2003.

Daniel E. Gustafson

Daniel E. Gustafson is a founding member of Gustafson Gluek PLLC. He is a magna cum laude graduate of the University of North Dakota with majors in Economics and Sociology (B.A. 1986) and a cum laude graduate of the University of Minnesota Law School (J.D. 1989). He was a member of the Minnesota Law Review from 1987 to 1989, serving as an Associate Research Editor in 1988-1989.

During law school, he clerked for Opperman & Paquin (1987-1989), a firm that also practiced in the areas of class action, antitrust and consumer protection litigation.

After law school, Mr. Gustafson served as a law clerk to the Honorable Diana E. Murphy, United States District Judge for the District of Minnesota (1989-91).

After his judicial clerkship, Mr. Gustafson returned to his former firm (then known as Opperman Heins & Paquin) and continued his work in the fields of antitrust and consumer protection class action litigation.

In April 1994, Mr. Gustafson became a founding member and partner in the law firm of Heins Mills & Olson, P.L.C. Between April 1994 and May 2003, Mr. Gustafson continued his work in antitrust and consumer protection class action litigation and also developed a boutique practice of assisting national patent and intellectual property firms in litigation matters. In May, 2003, Mr. Gustafson formed Gustafson Gluek PLLC where he continues to practice antitrust and consumer protection class action law.

Mr. Gustafson is admitted to practice in the United States District Court for the District of Minnesota, the United States District Court for the District of North Dakota, the United States Courts of Appeals for the Fifth, Eighth and Eleventh Circuits and in the United States Supreme Court.

Mr. Gustafson is also currently an adjunct professor at the University of Minnesota Law School teaching a semester seminar on the “Fundamentals of Pretrial Litigation.”

Mr. Gustafson is a past president of the Federal Bar Association, Minnesota Chapter (2002-2003) and served in various capacities in the Federal Bar Association over the last several years. Recently, he has been involved in developing the Federal Bar Association’s Pro Se Project, which coordinates volunteer representation for pro se litigants. He was the Vice-Chair of the 2003 Eighth Circuit Judicial Conference held during July 2003 in Minneapolis (Judge Diana E. Murphy was the Chair of the Conference). He is a member of the Hennepin County, Minnesota, Federal and American Bar Associations.

In 2001-2011, he was designated by Law & Politics magazine as a Minnesota “Super Lawyer,” alternately in the fields of business litigation, class actions and antitrust. “Super Lawyer” selection results from peer nominations, a “blue ribbon” panel review process and independent research on the candidates; no more than 5% of lawyers in Minnesota are selected as “Super Lawyers.” In 2005, Mr. Gustafson was one of only eleven Minnesota attorneys selected as a “Super Lawyer” in the field of antitrust litigation. Mr. Gustafson was also selected as one of Minnesota Lawyer’s Attorneys of the Year for 2010. He was selected based on nominations from across the state.

In June 2005, Mr. Gustafson testified before the U.S. Congressional Commission on Antitrust Modernization. In addition, Mr. Gustafson has authored or presented numerous seminars and continuing legal education pieces on various topics related to class action litigation, antitrust, consumer protection or legal advocacy. In September 2011, Mr. Gustafson testified before the House Committee on the Judiciary, Subcommittee on Intellectual Property, Competition and the Internet regarding the proposed merger between Express Scripts and Medco.
